The technical problems have been solved and we have sent out to you today by overnight mail a disk containing those documents in a searchable format. Accordingly, please advise as soon as possible if you will agree to a schedule as directed by Judge Freeman. We may have to revisit specific dates based on schedule changes in the interim.

I am uncomfortable agreeing to a discovery schedule as my prior understand was premised on our being provided a usable copy of BRANT ARB 00001 through 021924. This is nearly 22,000 documents that have yet to be produced in a usable format and that my client needs to review. I would prefer to advise the court that those documents need to be produced, a date when that will happen and that we will be able to file a schedule shortly after the receipt of those documents. If the court wishes to confer in the interim, I am available for that.

Please advise. Thank you.

We are sending out to you today a CD containing searchable documents bates stamped BRANT ARB 032522 through 034975, which are documents that have not been produced previously. We had planned to produce reformatted, searchable versions of documents bates stamped BRANT ARB 00001 through 021924 today as well, but due to computer problems the reformatted version was lost and we are recreating that work. The production will be made in the near future.
